

500 free portable card payment readers offer for micro-sellers who self-register via IPOSUP app

Connect IPOS pad

7 th October 2021, LONDON: Not only does IPOSUP have 25% lower card processing fees than its competitors, SumUp, Zettle and Square, its giving 500 micro-sellers that self-register via the IPOSUP mobile app, a free IPOS pad card reader delivered free to their registered address!

Taking card payments is essential for small businesses, particularly as contactless card payments limit is increasing to £100 on 15 th October. Traditional banks supply businesses with expensive, bulky and inefficient chip and pin card readers which are unaffordable for micro- and small-merchants such as street food stalls. Now-a-days the popular trend for sole-traders is to use small pocket-size mobile card readers such as IPOS pad capable of chip and PIN and contactless card payments on the go. Small mom-and-pop shops that are looking to keep their initial and running costs down, can use their smartphone or a tablet installed with IPOSUP app in lieu of a till. To use a mobile card reader, merchants need nothing more than their smartphone or tablet, the IPOSUP mobile app and an IPOS pad reader, accepting card and bank payments cost-effective and efficient.

Within this dynamic new space, IPOSUP.COM has released new IPOSUP mobile app, designed specifically for small businesses. Users can choose between IPOS bric, IPOS pad and IPOS soft card readers, which allows users to take card as well as bank payments at the point of sale. What's more, IPOSUP are giving 500 IPOS pad readers totally free. The IPOSUP app also has other exciting features which separate it from its competitors, such as 25% cheaper transaction rates, customer charity donation feature, a staff gratuity feature, plus IPOSUP gives sellers and their staff a bank account with an account number and sort code, which is kept in their digital wallet on the app.

This holistic IPOSUP app can save start-up and levelling up businesses money on multiple levels, providing businesses with free business and staff bank accounts, free business bank payments, free card readers, and cheaper fees per transactions. With a 15-minute registration time, it's never been so simple, secure and affordable to take payments for a micro or small business.
